INTRODUCTION: The Scheme of National Awards to Children for bravery was started 52 years ago in the year 1957. It was in this year that two children a boy and a girl were first rewarded for their exemplary presence of mind and courage. Since then, ICCW decided to confer National Awards to children, every year.

OBJECTIVES: The main objective of the scheme is to give due recognition to the children who perform acts of bravery with a view to inspire other children to follow their example. The deed should be "an act of spontaneous selfless service in the face of risk to life or threat of physical injury and or an act of courage and daring against a social evil/crime".

PROCESS OF INVITING APPLICATIONS: Publicity is given through the leading newspapers of the country, All India Radio and Doordarshan Kendras. Nominations are invited through State/U.T. Councils of ICCW, various departments of the State Government including Director Generals and Commissioners of Police of all States and Union Territories.

PROCESS OF APPLYING: Nominations are received in the prescribed application form which can be obtained from ICCW headquarters office. The form should be recommended by two of the listed Competent Authorities. The form is to be accompanied by a write-up of about 250 words giving the details of the deed performed by the applicant, proof of date of birth, Newspaper/Magazine clippings and or the First Information Report (FIR) or Police Diary filed with the Police Station. The account of the incident as well as the supporting documents should preferably be endorsed by two of the listed Competent Authorities.

DATE OF SUBMISSION OF APPLICATION: Last date of submission of application is September 30, 2009.

SELECTION PROCEDURE: The selection is made by a high powered Committee constituted by ICCW comprising representatives from Secretariats of the President of India, Vice-President of India, Ministries of Human Resource Development, Women & Child Development, Youth Affairs & Sports, Social Justice & Empowerment, Health & Family Welfare, Railways, Defence, Home Affairs, AIR, Doordarshan, Police, some NGOs, Office-Bearers and members of the Council.

INDIAN COUNCIL FOR CHILD WELFARE

4, Deen Dayal Upadhaya Marg, New Delhi-110 002

ICCW/NBA/APPLS/2009/220

1.6.2009

TO: District Collectors/Deputy Commissioners/District Magistrates/Director Generals & Commissioners of Police/Departments of Social Welfare/Women & Child Development/Education/Public Instruction of all States & Union Territories.

Dear Sir/Madam,

The Indian Council for Child Welfare gives awards for exemplary acts of bravery to children every year. The awards are presented by the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India just before Republic Day. The recipients are felicitated by VVIPs like the President of India as well as various organisations. They also participate in the Republic Day Parade in the Capital.

ICCW receives recommendations from various sources for the Awards. It has however been observed, over the years, that many of the recommendations received range from insignificant to unsubstantiated acts of bravery. We are sure there would be many more instances which could be brought to the notice of the Selection Sub-Committee with the active cooperation and assistance of Departments like yours.

The purpose of this letter is to request for your personal involvement in giving the scheme of National Bravery Awards wide publicity so that every genuine and authentic act of bravery is brought to the notice of the Selection Sub-Committee and the Awards be given to the most deserving children. We are enclosing the details of the scheme and nomination form for the 2009 Awards for your perusal and necessary action.

The main criteria for the selection of candidates is the performance of a distinct and visible act of bravery in the face of an impending threat of injury or danger to life or an act of courage and daring against a social evil/crime. We request you to go through the contents of the scheme as well as the instructions on the application form carefully before sending the applications. Please endorse a copy of the application to the respective State/UT Council for Child Welfare. A list of addresses of the State/UT Councils is enclosed.

We are sure you will share our concern and render all possible assistance to help us ensure that genuine and deserving cases do not go unnoticed. Please ensure that the recommendations complete in all respects reach us at the above address by September 30,2009.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

GITA SIDDHARTHA(SMT.)
